LACC INTERNATIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM

ABOUT

The International Student Program is host to 300 students from over 70 countries studying at LACC under the F-1 visa. Our students are immersed in various programs of study on campus while acclimating to American higher education systems and Los Angeles' vibrant multi-culture lifestyle.

The Language Academy offers F1 students the opportunity to improve your English language skills and assist you in reaching your academic goals.

WHAT DOES THE PROGRAM OFFER?

- Provides international students with general education classes required for transfer and Associate degree programs
- Provides international students with Liberal Arts majors leading to the Associate degree and transfer.
- Provides vocational training majors leading to certificates of completion, the Associate degree, or transfer.
- Offers a Language Academy to assist students in their pursuit of the English language and higher education.
