LACC MUSIC

Department of Music

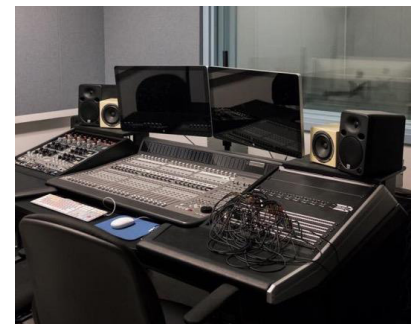

ABOUT

LACC's Music Department offers students a blend of traditional conservatory-style music education, cutting-edge vocational training, and hands-on private instruction, all in a top-notch facility in the heart of Hollywood. Through our comprehensive course offerings, world-class faculty, and unparalleled financial aid opportunities, we offer one of the best deals in music education.

The Herb Alpert gift provides qualified music majors with tuition-free education.

HERB ALPERT FOUNDATION

In August of 2016, the LACC Music Department received a $10.1 million endowment from The Herb Alpert Foundation - the largest private donation to a community college in California. The Herb Alpert Endowment provides qualified music majors with a tuition-free education to earn an Associate of Arts degree in Music, Commercial Music Skills Certificate, or be enrolled in the LACC Music Academy, a program which prepares students to transfer to four-year universities and conservatories.

FACILITIES

Our newly renovated facilities rival those of private four-year institutions, giving students access to everything they need to grow and succeed as a musician.
