LACC RALPH BUNCHE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

ABOUT

The Ralph Bunche Scholars (RBS) program is committed to meeting the needs of academically motivated and intellectually curious students whose main purpose is to transfer to a four-year university.

- The RBS program offers an enriched learning environment with close collaboration between faculty and Scholars
- Stand-alone as well as paired honors classes are being offered
- Priority consideration to 1st tier universities, such as UCLA (and other universities with whom the program has agreements)
- Opportunities for Scholars to present their research at conferences
- Scholars often receive major scholarships and awards
- Guarantees library privileges at UCLA
- Organized special meetings, get-togethers, trips, and seminars

FACILITIES

The RBS program has a new office in the Student Services Building, # 234. Students are invited to drop in anytime! We also have a new honors classroom and study lounge in Franklin Hall, # 205.

HIGHLIGHTS

The highlights of our RBS program is our students' success: they transfer to major universities, such as MIT, Columbia U, Amherst U, Stanford, UCLA, UC Berkeley, UC Irvine, UC Santa Barbara and San Diego, and Cal States. We continue to be tremendously proud of their success.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The RBS program has a specific Scholarship administered through the LACC Foundation, given out every Spring semester.
