THEME: ALWAYS FORWARD. FORWARD ALWAYS.

With the advent of Black Panther, the MeToo movement, the survivors of the most recent Florida shooting, the Women's March, Black Lives Matter, DACA, etc. more and more people, often without a voice, have begun to use theirs. In your submissions, show us not only what is but what we must become, what we will achieve, where we will go. Submissions are expected to portray a sense of progression or movement toward the future. Whether speculative fiction, Science Fiction, political, or personal essays, each piece should in some way look toward a distant horizon, whether in mind, body, or spirit. One of the most revolutionary acts the disenfranchised can do is to dream of a better world as to dream is to be human! Always forward. Forward Always!
