PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Los Angeles City College English Literacy Program and Citizenship Center is part of the Office of Economic & Workforce Development in Academic Affairs. The program provides eligible students with non-credit matriculation services and instruction in non-credit English as a Second Language, Vocational ESL, and short-term vocational training. The Citizenship Center is focused on providing students with all services necessary for completing the Naturalization process and provides Civics participation classes to prospective United States citizens. Citizenship Services are available to any permanent resident seeking Naturalization to become US citizens. The center assists with the N-400 form, provides information on US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulations, takes pictures, sponsors test preparation workshops, and administers the CASAS history and government test, as well as the CIT interview test. Citizenship and other non-credit classes are offered free.
