

Eric Liu

The LACC Book Program closed out its year long exploration of mentors and mentoring with a pre presentation by author, Eric Liu, on Wednesday, April 11, 2007. To a standing room only audience, in the Faculty and Staff Center, Liu talked about his book Guiding Lights: The People Who Lead us Toward Our Purpose in Life.

His message to the audience was quite clear: take notice of the people around you that provide you with inspiration, clarity, and focus. Who might they be? Friends, family, strangers? It doesn't matter. The education comes from those unique and interesting individuals sometimes in the most unexpected places.

...and the courage to pursue a new path can result.

These images are from the program on the 11th. They show the author, the audience and some members of the LACC Book Program Committee.

Thank you, LACC for continuing to support the LACC Book Program.
