

A small, but dedicated team turned out for the first City Pride Day held in a number of years. Participants cleaned classrooms in Jefferson Hall washing chalkboards, windows and graffiti and extracting staples from bulletin boards. Others picked up litter from the plant boxes and other areas.

Thanks to all of the participants and the LACC cleaning staff.

HOPE TO SEE YOU
AT THE NEXT CITY PRIDE DAY!

